THE MATCH-UP

The Chiefs and Packers will square off in an interconference match-up at Arrowhead on Sunday. Kansas City enjoyed a bye after registering a tough, 12-10 win at Oakland (10/21), while the Packers are coming off a thrilling 19-13 OT win on Monday night at Denver (10/29). After posting wins in four of its last five contests, Kansas City sits atop the AFC West standings with a 4-3 record along with San Diego. Green Bay leads the NFC North at 6-1 and has won 10 of its last 11 contests dating back to 2006.

It’s been 20 years since Green Bay registered its one and only victory in Kansas City. The Packers have lost five straight contests against the Chiefs, Green Bay’s longest active losing streak against any NFL franchise and the Packers lengthiest losing stretch vs. any single opponent since dropping eight straight games against Miami from 71-94.

This Chiefs-Packers contest will feature a pair of head coaches who were former Chiefs assistants – KC’s Herm Edwards and GB’s Mike McCarthy – who both served on Marty Schottenheimer’s staff in the ’90s. This contest will likely also mark the final appearance of QB Brett Favre at Arrowhead. Kansas City is the only team that Favre has faced and never defeated. The Chiefs own a perfect 3-0 mark in their previous meetings (’93, ’96 and 2003) with Green Bay’s Canton-bound signal caller.

Edwards is assembling a Chiefs squad that bears a number of similarities to the Kansas City squads of the ’90s that made six consecutive playoff berths on the strength of solid defense, a commitment to the ground game and domination of the turnover chart. Kansas City is the only team in the league that has held all of its opponents to 20 points or less this season. Dating back to last season, the Chiefs have actually limited 14 of their last 16 foes to 20 points or less.

KC has allowed just 113 total points (16.1 ppg) on the season to rank sixth in the league and has permitted just 14.1 offensive ppg to tie for third. Kansas City’s five-game victory stretch against the Packers is the Chiefs second-longest active streak against any Chiefs opponent (Oakland – nine games). The Packers five-game losing streak against the Chiefs is Green Bay’s longest active losing streak against any team.

THE SERIES

The Chiefs own a 6-2-1 overall record (6-1-1 regular season and 0-1 postseason) in nine previous meetings with the Packers. The Chiefs have won five straight regular season contests vs. Green Bay, including a 40-34 OT decision at Lambeau Field (10/12/03). The Chiefs posted the biggest fourth-quarter comeback in franchise history in that contest, overcoming a 17-point deficit in the final quarter to register the victory. The winning points came on a 51-yard TD connection from QB Trent Green to WR Eddie Kennison.

Kansas City’s five-game victory stretch against the Packers is the Chiefs second-longest active streak against any Chiefs opponent (Oakland – nine games). The Packers five-game losing streak against the Chiefs is Green Bay’s longest active losing streak against any team.

KC’S INTERCONFERENCE EDGE AT ARROWHEAD

No NFL team boasts a better interconference record at home than the Chiefs. In 21-4 (.840) mark that the Chiefs have compiled at Arrowhead since '95, KC’s domination of NFC opponents at Arrowhead has been remarkable. In 25 home contests against NFC foes since '95, KC has outscored those opponents by a 747-to-410 margin, good for an average score of 29.9 to 25.

REMEMBERING OUR FOUNDER

As part of a year-long tribute to Hunt in 2007, the Chiefs will display a commemorative patch that prominently features the American Football League logo to serve as a reminder of Hunt’s formation of the AFL and the lasting impact the American Football League has made on the game of professional football. True to Hunt’s humble styles, the letters “LH” are subtly displayed on the football of the AFL logo, symbolizing the fact that the Chiefs Founder always put the best interests of the league ahead of his own. The patch will be affixed to the left chest of both KC’s jerseys, meaning this piece of woven symbolism will be worn over the heart of every Chiefs player.

GONZALEZ OWNS NFL TD RECORD FOR TIGHT ENDS

Eight-time Pro Bowl TE Tony Gonzalez owns 64 career TD catches, the most by a tight end in NFL history. Gonzalez, who was drafted by Atlanta in the second round of the 1997 NFL draft, has 100 or more yards receiving in a game 40 times in 164 career games, including 16 seasons with the Chiefs. Gonzalez is the all-time leader among NFL tight ends with 1,325 catches, 15,029 yards and 115 touchdowns. He has also caught 23 touchdown passes in the postseason, including a record 16 in the 2004 playoffs.

THE BATTLE FOR PARKERSBURG BRAGGINS RIGHTS

Chiefs C Casey Wiegmann and Packers DE Aaron Kampman are both natives of Parkersburg, IA. They are two of four active NFL players from that Midwestern football Mecca, joining C Brad Meester (Jacksonville) and DE Jared DeVries (Detroit). Both Wiegmann and Kampman played college football at the University of Iowa.
The Chiefs have rebounded from an 0-2 start to post a 4-3 record for the second consecutive year. KC is 11th in the NFL in total defense (305.9 ypg). The Chiefs have allowed 99 offensive points (14.1 ppg) to tie for third in the league. The Chiefs have produced one first-half shutout and two second-half shutouts in their first seven games. KC is 10th in the NFL, allowing 4.9 yards per play and is ninth in the league, permitting 5.56 yards per pass play. KC is 10th in the NFL in pass defense, permitting 197.1 ypg. Opponents have compiled a 74.2 passer rating against the Chiefs, the seventh-lowest mark in the league. Kansas City is sixth in the NFL with 21.0 sacks and is also sixth in the league, averaging a sack once every 11.8 pass attempts. KC has forced 49 negative plays (26 rushing, 23 passing) to rank tie for fifth in the NFL.

The Chiefs defense leads the NFL with a 26.7 Red Zone TD percentage, allowing just four TDs on 15 opponent Red Zone trips. The Chiefs defense is third in the NFL in third-down efficiency (34.0%). KC is allowing an average of just 17.1 first downs per game, tying as the sixth-lowest total in the league. The Chiefs are tied for eighth in the NFL with 15 takeaways and are tied for seventh in the NFL with seven opponent fumble recoveries.

DE Jared Allen (D4b-04) leads the club and is tied with NYG DE Osi Umenyiora for second in the NFL with 8.0 sacks. Allen has three multi-sack games in the five contests he’s played in this season. His 35.5 career sacks rank seventh in Chiefs history. He needs five more to overtake DT Bill Maas (40.0) for sixth. Opponents’ average drive start after a Chiefs kickoff is the second-best mark in the NFL behind Buffalo (23.0). The Chiefs have allowed 49 negative plays (26 rushing, 23 passing) to rank tie for fifth in the NFL. Edwards has six career TDs (four INT returns, two fumble returns). In total, Edwards has six career TDs (four INT returns, two fumble returns). In addition, Edwards’ 1,566 career tackles also rank fifth among active NFL players. His 800 tackles with KC are the fifth-highest tally in Chiefs history, needing 28 more to overtake CB Kevin Ross (827) for fourth. Dating back to ’96, no NFL active NFL linebacker owns more takeaways (39) or has started three straight seasons of at least 80 catches and 1,200 yards. WR Dwayne Bowe (D1-07) is the only Chiefs player since the AFL-NFL merger to register a TD catch in his first three starts. Bowe set a Chiefs rookie record with 146 receiving yards at San Diego (9/30), breaking a mark that had stood since ’60. Bowe’s 164 receiving yards at San Diego (9/30) and 166 receiving yards at San Francisco (10/7) are both products of Aplington-Parkersburg HS in Parkersburg, IA...

The Arrowhead Advantage

Since the start of the '90 season, no team boasts a better home record than Kansas City's 104-35 (.748) mark at Arrowhead. Dating back to '95, the Chiefs also own an NFL-best 21-4 (.840) home record against NFC opponents. Green Bay is 4-10 (.286) against AFC opponents since the start of the 2004 campaign and has lost three of its last five road games against AFC foes. However, the Packers do boast an 8-3 road record under head coach Mike McCarthy, including a 19-13 OT win at Denver (10/29).

Chiefs Seek to Stay Undefeated vs. Packers QB Brett Favre

Kansas City is the only team that QB Brett Favre has faced as a starter and has failed to beat in his storied 17-year career. Favre owns at least one victory against 30 other NFL teams, compiling a 153-88 (.635) record as an NFL starter against the rest of the league, but is 0-3 against the Chiefs. In Favre's three previous appearances against the Chiefs, KC was able to pressure the Packers passer, sacking him a combined 11.0 times, in addition to forcing five INTs and four fumbles (three recovered by KC). The Chiefs have held Favre to a passer rating of just 77.0 in those contests.

Throwing against the Chiefs won't necessarily be any easier in this contest, KC's defense that ranks 10th in the NFL in pass defense, allowing just 197.1 passing ypg. The Chiefs have also registered 21.0 sacks and are on pace to finish the year with 48.0 sacks, which would be the club's highest tally since posting 51.0 sacks in 2000. Dating back to 2002, KC boasts a 24-2 (.923) record at home when it registers 2.0 or more sacks.

After throwing a total of just two INTs in the first four games of 2007, Favre has suffered two INTs apiece in two of his last three contests. The Chiefs are 30-3 (.939) at Arrowhead dating back to '95 when the club forces two or more INTs. Green Bay is just 7-33 (.175) on the road when Favre is intercepted two or more times. The Packers are 77-8 (.906) when Favre posts a 100.0-rating game, including a streak of eight straight wins. Favre threw for 331 yards and compiled a season-high 142.4 rating at Denver (10/29). Opposing QBs have compiled a 74.2 rating against KC this season, the seventh-lowest mark in the league.

Chiefs Seek to Turn an 0-2 Start Into a Postseason Berth, Again

Kansas City was one of 10 NFL teams to start the 2007 campaign with an 0-2 record. Currently the Chiefs (4-3) and N.Y. Giants (6-2) are the two members of that group to own winning records, while the other eight squads to start the year at 0-2 own a combined 13-46 (.220) record.

Bouncing back from a slow start is a familiar routine for Kansas City. The Chiefs own a league-best record of 186-55-1 (.750) when squaring off against teams coming off a MNF road game are 8-8 when they play on the road the following week vs. Pittsburgh (9/27/92).

Interestingly, Chiefs defensive line coach Tim Krumrie unwittingly played a role in setting up the first of Favre's 244 consecutive starts. Krumrie, a Pro Bowl DT for the Bengals at the time, tackled Packers QB Don Majkowski – the last Green Bay signal caller to start other than Favre – in the first quarter of a Packers-Bengals contest at Lambeau Field (9/29/02). Majkowski suffered an injury on the play, ushering Favre into the game. Favre guided the Packers to a 24-23 come-from-behind victory that set the tone for his record-setting streak the following week vs. Pittsburgh (9/27/92).

Winning the Turnover Battle Always Bodes Well at Arrowhead

The Chiefs are 45-4 (.918) at Arrowhead with a positive takeaway margin dating back to '95. KC has won 18 consecutive games when positive at home dating back to 2002, the third-longest active streak in the league. KC is 8-2 under head coach Herm Edwards with a positive turnover differential. GB has won 10 straight games when positive under Mike McCarthy. The Packers have also won six consecutive road contests with a positive turnover mark. The Packers have forced 51 points off turnovers, the sixth-highest total in the league. KC is 10th in that category with 39 points off takeaways.

Chiefs Are Especially Stingy in Scoring Defense

Kansas City is the only NFL team that has held its foes to 20 points or less in every contest this season. Kansas City is 55-9 (.859) at Arrowhead dating back to '95 when holding foes to 20 points or less, including victories in 24 of the club's last 26 games in those circumstances. The Chiefs also own an 8-1 record under Herm Edwards when scoring 21 points or more. Over their last 16 games, the Chiefs have held 14 of their opponents to 20 points or less, allowing an average of just 17.3 ppg in those contests. In 2007, KC's defense has permitted opposing offenses to score only 14.1 ppg. Only Pittsburgh (11.0) and Indianapolis (12.6) are allowing fewer offensive points per game.

Since QB Brett Favre took over for the Packers in '92, Green Bay owns a 70-6 (.921) record when scoring 30 points or more, including a streak of 14 straight wins dating back to 2004. However, Green Bay is 5-22 (.185) on the road when scoring 21 points or less, including losses in nine of its last 10 such contests. The Packers had lost nine straight road games when scoring 21 points or less prior to their 19-13 OT win at Denver (10/29). Green Bay was held to exactly 20 points in all but one of those contests this year, a 20-17 loss to Chicago (10/7).

KC Continues Improvement in Year Two of the Edwards Era

The Chiefs have made steady defensive improvement in the number one defensive categories under the leadership of head coach Herm Edwards and defensive coordinator Gunther Cunningham. Most notably, the Chiefs are allowing 6.8 fewer ppg compared to 2005, are allowing 166.0 fewer passing yards per game and are permitting TDs 21.1% less frequently inside the Red Zone than just two seasons ago. Kansas City currently leads the league in Red Zone defense, allowing just four TDs on 15 opponent possessions inside the 20, good for a 26.7 Red Zone TD percentage. Here's a look . . .

Adding yet another nailbiting chapter to the Chiefs-Raiders rivalry, Kansas City slugged out a 12-10 win at McAfee Coliseum. Clinging to a two-point lead with under a minute remaining, S Jarrad Page intercepted Raiders QB Daunte Culpepper to seal the win and help the Chiefs become the first franchise to ever defeat the Raiders nine straight times.

One the game’s opening drive, Kansas City marched down the field and got on the scoreboard first. QB Damon Huard hit WR Dwayne Bowe for a 22-yard pickup and found TE Tony Gonzalez for 20 more yards on the possession. K Dave Rayner would convert a 41-yard FG when the drive stalled for a 3-0 lead.

Oakland forced Kansas City to punt late in the first quarter, but as CB Chris Carr called for a fair catch his teammate, CB Nnamdi Asomugha, ran for it. The ball hit Asomugha in the back of the leg and Chiefs S Jon McGraw recovered the loose ball. The Chiefs capitalized with another Rayner field goal for a 6-0 advantage. With Oakland poised to answer, the Chiefs defense made a pivotal stand. On fourth-and-one from the Kansas City 17-yard line, DT Alfonso Boone stopped Oakland RB LaMont Jordan for no gain, turning the ball over on downs.

After taking a 6-0 lead into the locker room at the half, Kansas City looked poised to add some breathing room to its margin as RB Larry Johnson broke off a career-long 54-yard run. However, after an 18-yard pass to Gonzalez, the Chiefs offense could move the ball no closer. Rayner had made his first two field goals of the afternoon, but hooked a 30-yard attempt wide left. On the first play of the Raiders ensuing possession, Culpepper hit WR Jerry Porter for a 30-yard attempt wide left. On the first play of the Raiders possession, K Dave Rayner would convert a 41-yard FG to cut the score to 6-3.

Playing in a location they hadn’t visited since ’90 – Lambeau Field – the Chiefs found themselves in a familiar situation. Locked in a tight fourth-quarter battle for the third straight week, Kansas City (6-0) pulled out a remarkable 40-34 OT victory over Green Bay. QB Trent Green – who threw for 400 yards and three TDs – led the Chiefs back from a 17-point fourth-quarter deficit. Green’s 51-yard scoring strike to WR Eddie Kennison in OT proved to be the decisive points as KC became just the third club in NFL history to register wins in its initial three trips to Lambeau Field.

The Chiefs trailed 31-14 in the fourth quarter before RB Priest Holmes bulled into the end zone from one-yard out to cut the Packers margin to 31-21. Chiefs S Jerome Woods picked off GB QB Brett Favre on the next possession and promptly returned the pigskin 79 yards for his second TD of the season, bringing KC within points at 31-28. A 67-yard pass play to TE Tony Gonzalez – who finished the game with 121 yards – set up a 34-yard K Morten Andersen FG to tie the count at 31-31 with 5:41 left in regulation.

Favre marched the Packers right back into scoring territory with a seven-play, 48-yard drive that culminated with a 41-yard K Ryan Longwell FG that put GB back ahead 34-31. Green got the ball back with 2:43 on the clock and converted two key third-down passes, setting the stage for a 31-yard FG by Andersen with 0:05 remaining to send the game into a fifth quarter deadlocked at 31-31.

KC won the toss in OT and handed the ball to Holmes nine straight times before a third-down pass to WR Dante Hall fell incomplete. Andersen’s 48-yard FG attempt was blocked by DT Cletidus Hunt, giving GB new life. However, GB RB Ahman Green – who had a game-high 139 rushing yards – had the ball jarred loose by Woods on the Packers only offensive snap of OT. LB Mike Maslowski completed its remarkable comeback bid.

GAME NOTES
• The Chiefs overcame a 17-point fourth-quarter deficit for the first time in team history. The largest previous fourth-quarter deficit overcome was 14 points, which was done three times, most recently in a 37-34 win at Oakland (11/28/99).
• KC’s 40-34 win at GB was the Chiefs’ first OT win since a 26-23 OT decision vs. Denver (12/16/01). It was KC’s first road OT win since a 13-10 victory at Houston (10/23/83) and just the fourth road OT victory in team history, including postseason play.
• QB Trent Green’s 400 passing yards were the fourth-highest single-game total in KC history and the second-highest total ever in a Chiefs victory. It was his highest passing output with KC and the second-highest total of his career, he had 431 yards vs. Carolina (11/5/00) while with the Rams.
